DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (If known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This little house in two parts is much altered inside and out, scarcely recognizable under asphalt and tar paper, but perhaps worth analysis.

Facing west, the ridgeline runs north-south. The north wing is one room with a large interior fireplace for cooking and heat, now brick topped. A lean-to on the west side obscures its walls, Probably log. The south part of the house appears to have one side of the roof raised - the east side. New dormer windows on the west side are irregularly spaced.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE (Include Personages, Dates, Events, Etc.)

In 1754 Aquilla Norris, descendant of one of Lord Baltimore's first party, was born here, presumably in the cabin-the small wing. He fought in the Revolution. One of his descendants was Dr Amanda Norris, the wife of, one of the first women to graduate in Medicine at Johns Hopkins University.

The property is in very poor repair; surrounded by junk cars & plumbing. The entrance runs practically through the yard of a house on the lane. Nevertheless the site is attractive, the house deserving of analysis, perhaps restoration.
