DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

#120 is a 2-1/2 story brick house detached on the right side, three bays wide and two bays in depth with a large, 2-1/2 story, brick "L" shaped wing, four bays deep and two in width with side galleries. There is also a one story, brick, one bay square, original extension with wall (dependency?) louvers. All brickwork is in common bond. The front entrance occupies the left bay with a paneled door, paneled enframement, and old, four pane overlight. The first floor is protected by a covered wooden porch of later vintage. The first floor front windows are now of 1/1 sash with 6/6 sash remaining above, and all have wood sills and lintels decorated by end blocks and carved roundels, as above the door.

The wing is entered by an old, four panel door with a three pane overlight, and all windows are of 6/6 sash with wood lintels and sills. The front attic is lighted by two small, four pane windows in the right gable and the wing attic by a small, six pane window in the rear gable.

Both sections have steep, metal "A" frame roofs resting on three and two string brick cornices. Wide enclosed chimneys rise from each end.

The house rests on a low fieldstone foundation.
