The Working Group on Native American Human Remains will hold its fourteenth meeting on January 27, 2012, from 3:00 PM until 5:00 PM at the Todd Performing Art Center Building, Room EDC 27, Chesapeake College, 1000 College Circle, Wye Mills, MD 21658. The meeting is open to the public, and all are welcome to attend.

The Working Group is comprised of ten individuals, five designated by the Maryland Commission on Indian Affairs, and five designated by the Maryland Historical Trust. The Working Group has been established by the Secretary of Planning to consider options for an Appropriate Place of Repose for certain Native American Human Remains currently in the care of the Maryland Historical Trust. Documents related to this task are available on the website of the Maryland Historical Trust at <http://mht.maryland.gov> (click on Archeology, then on Collections).

For additional information, please contact Charlie Hall, Maryland State Terrestrial Archeologist, at 410.514.7665 or by email at chall@mdp.state.md.us.
