Baltimore American Indian Center and Heritage Museum B-5123-2

Criteria Considered: A & B

Criteria Recommended: A & B

The discussion included recommendations by members of the Committee to clarify what elements of the building are original and what were added at a later time. Members of the Committee agreed that the architectural style of the building should be classified as “Greek Revival” rather than “early Federal.” Peter Pearre moved to accept the nomination with editorial changes; Damie Stillman seconded, and all members present voted in favor. Richard Longstreth did not submit a vote in advance of the meeting, and Jean Russo submitted a vote via email to approve the nomination.
