

MARYLAND HISTORICAL TRUST

Architectural Fieldwork Symposium

1st Floor Conference Room

100 Community Place, Crownsville MD 21032

Thursday, October 27th, 2022

9:30AM to 4:00PM

-
- 9:30 - 9:55     Registration & Continental Breakfast
- 9:55 - 10:00     Opening Remarks - Introductions & Logistics
Elizabeth Hughes, Director and State Historic Preservation Officer, MHT
- 10:00 - 10:30     Inclusive Museum Leadership: Preservation as a Tool for Social Justice
Omar Eaton-Martínez, Senior Vice President for Historic Sites, National Trust for Historic Preservation
This presentation will discuss topics that meet at the intersection of museums, preservation, and social justice.
- 10:30 - 11:00     Shiplap House, Annapolis, Maryland
Jennifer Dodson, Building Historian from the U.K.
This presentation will consider the possibilities and limitations of restoring identities to former residents using a variety of common documentary sources.
- 11:00 - 11:15     Break
- 11:15 - 11:45     Making Stone Soup: The Howard Heritage Project
Erik Ledbetter, Maryland Park Ranger, Assistant Manager of Patuxent River State Park
Angie Crenshaw, Park Manager of Susquehanna, Rocks, and Palmer State Park
Peter Morrill, DNR Cultural Resources and Curatorship Program Manager
This presentation will trace the Howard family's journey from enslavement to freedom and outline the Maryland Park Service's efforts to document and share their inspiring story.
- 11:45 - 12:30     Updates from MHT
Heather Barrett, Administrator of Architecture Research, MHT
Allison Luthern, Architectural Survey Administrator, MHT
Jessica French, Administrator, Evaluation and Registration, MHT
- 12:30 - 1:30     Lunch & Networking
- 1:30 - 2:00     Documenting Women in Maryland Architecture, 1920-1970
John Gentry, Senior Architectural Historian, EHT Tracerics
This presentation will examine the early history of women's involvement in the architectural field, the educational opportunities available, and the challenges they faced in establishing their careers.

- 2:00 – 2:30 “...the Music of hammers or the odoriferous smell of Paint”: The Work of a Preservation Joiner at George Washington’s Mount Vernon
Amy McAuley, Preservation Joiner, George Washington’s Mount Vernon
In this presentation, master joiner Amy McAuley will share a technical overview of historic woodworking conservation techniques and projects.
- 2:30 – 2:45 Break
- 2:45 – 3:15 Maryland’s Metrorail in the DMV
Jeff Winstel, Architectural Historian, Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority
This presentation will focus on the research of function and prototype design elements of the Metrorail transit system that created and hold together a unified regional infrastructure of various site-specific designs, as seen in a recent survey.
- 3:15 – 3:45 Buildings of Maryland: Black History in the Latest SAH Buildings of the U.S. Guidebook
Lisa Davidson, National Historic Landmarks Program Manager
Catherine Lavoie, Chief, Historic American Buildings Survey
Authors Lisa Davidson and Catherine Lavoie will present highlights of the final book content featuring buildings and sites related to Black history and culture in Maryland.
- 3:45 – 4:00 Closing Remarks & Adjournment
Marcia Miller, Chief, Office of Research, Survey, and Registration, MHT