

Join us for the
MARYLAND HISTORICAL TRUST
ARCHITECTURAL FIELDWORK SYMPOSIUM

*October 24th * 9:00 AM – 4:00 PM * Crownsville*

Please join us for our one-day architectural fieldwork symposium. Our goal is to provide anyone doing architectural fieldwork in Maryland with the opportunity to connect, network, and hear about our latest initiatives throughout the state. Along with plenty of chances to talk informally, some of our agenda items include updates from MHT, the African American Experience during Reconstruction, Southern Maryland's outbuildings, documentation of properties owned by the Maryland Department of Natural Resources, and the Maryland State House dome scanning project.

Sessions will be interactive with ample opportunity for discussion and questions.

Field surveyors, architectural historians, preservation planners, and historic preservation organizations are encouraged to attend.

The deadline to register is October 17, 2019. Act now and reserve your space!

Your non-refundable registration fee ($20.00 Student, $30.00 General Public), payable by check or credit card, will cover a continental breakfast, lunch and coffee for the day. To register, fill out the attached form. Please contact Karen Golder karen.golder@maryland.gov with any questions.

This workshop is generously supported by the Maryland Historical Trust Board of Trustees.
