Marsh Creek Colored School

Architectural Survey File

This is the architectural survey file for this MIHP record. The survey file is organized reverse-chronological (that is, with the latest material on top). It contains all MIHP inventory forms, National Register nomination forms, determinations of eligibility (DOE) forms, and accompanying documentation such as photographs and maps.

Users should be aware that additional undigitized material about this property may be found in on-site architectural reports, copies of HABS/HAER or other documentation, drawings, and the “vertical files” at the MHT Library in Crownsville. The vertical files may include newspaper clippings, field notes, draft versions of forms and architectural reports, photographs, maps, and drawings. Researchers who need a thorough understanding of this property should plan to visit the MHT Library as part of their research project; look at the MHT web site (mht.maryland.gov) for details about how to make an appointment.

All material is property of the Maryland Historical Trust.

DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

Marsh Creek Colored School is now a residence and it has been remodeled for that purpose. It retains the large section of the school but the addition on the front was built for conversion into a home.

The old part of the building was three bays long and had one room with tall ceiling. It was like many early schools in Caroline County, many of which remain in unchanged condition.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The Marsh Creek Colored School is a significant building because of its association with the education of the black community west of Preston. It appears to have been constructed close to the turn of the century.
