Henderson School is located on the northwest corner of the intersection of Bee Tree Road and Bridge Road in Henderson, Caroline County.

The school is constructed of frame on a brick foundation and is covered with an imitation brick asphalt siding. The plan is U-shaped and the north facade is the top of the U, with two gable ends connected by a hyphen. The east and south facades are almost identical, having a gable end section with two 6/6 sash windows, a central doorway where the gable section connects with its neighboring section, and a row of five connected 6/6 pane sash windows on the long section. The entrances both have small gable roofs and the east entrance is enclosed in a gable roofed projection. The west facade has two sections of the row of five windows. Each gable has a narrow brick chimney stack.
