

MURLEY'S BRANCH METHODIST CHURCH

AL-II-A-079
Williams Road, Rush
ca. 1850

The Murley's Branch Methodist Church basically consists of a one story, one bay wide frame structure. The church is believed to have been constructed soon after March 1, 1850, which is the date of purchase of the property by trustees of the church. Methodism was extremely popular in Allegany County and had begun as early as 1791.

DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

Murley's Branch Methodist Church is located on the Williams Road near Rush in Allegany County.

The Murley's Branch Methodist Church is a one story, one bay wide frame building that has been covered with novelty siding. The building rests on a low stone foundation. The roof is gabled, covered with tin and has a wide soffit at the gable ends and an ornamental barge board on the main facade. Windows in the structure are double hung, wooden, gothic sash frames with dripstone mouldings and four over four lights. The building has one entrance which is located on the south facade and features the original door with four verticle panels, original hardware and a gothic sash transom light. It is topped by a hood on brackets. The entrance is located in a one bay, gable roofed enclosed entrance porch. Like the roof of the main block, the roof of the entrance porch is gabled, covered with tin and has an ornamental barge board. A small circular ventilator is located in the gable end of the entrance porch. Located in the northwest side of the church is a replaced cement block chimney.

SPECIFIC DATES Ca. 1850 BUILDER/ARCHITECT _____

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

On March 1, 1850, the trustees of the Murley's Branch Methodist Church purchased land from George Slicer.¹ Evidence in deeds for surrounding properties indicate that there may have been an earlier Methodist Church constructed on the same spot.² In All probability this earlier building was probably constructed of logs and was meant to be used as a temporary shelter until the congregation had grown sufficiently to warrant the construction of a more permanent building.

Methodism was extremely popular in Allegany County. Missionary activities had begun in the area as early as 1791³ and by 1870 when the federal census was taken nearly half of the county's 74 churches were Methodist.⁴
