McCABE HOUSE
Off Route 51, northwest of Spring Gap
1900 - 1905

The McCabe House was constructed in the early 1900's for the Wheeler family. It is a large stucco structure two and a half stories tall and three bays wide, built in the Queen Anne Style. The roof is low hipped with a soffit and eaves, contains a hipped roof dormer on the north side, and has a cross gable on the west side. Windows in the building are double hung wooden sashes with plain molding and eight over one lights. The main entrance on the north side is quite elaborate with a verticle eight light door with side lights. This structure typifies the style of those built in the first quarter of the 20th Century in Allegany County.

DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The McCabe House is located just off Maryland Route 51, Northwest of Spring Gap, Allegany County.

The McCabe House is a large square stucco structure that is three bays wide and two and a half stories high. Two additions have been made to the building which include an enclosed porch on the west side of the structure and a small frame addition in the rear of the building. The entire structure is supported by a high stone foundation with a beveled water table. The roof is low hipped and covered with replaced asphalt shingles and has a soffit and eaves. The roof line is interrupted by a single dormer located on the north side and a pedimented cross gable located on the west side of the building. Windows in the building are double hung wooden sashes with plain molding and eight over one lights. The main entrance is located on the northern face of the building and features a verticle eight light door with side lights. Less elaborate entrances are also located on the east and south faces of the building. The main entrance is covered by a flat roofed three bay end porch which is supported by chamfered Roman Doric columns which rest on brick supports. Two corbeled brick chimneys are located in the interior of the building.

BUILDER/ARCHITECT

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The Wheeler House was built in the early 1900's for the Wheeler family. The house is a large stucco structure built in the Queen Anne style. Two members of the family, Raymond and his sister, who was to marry a McCabe, were in part responsible for the building of a second large house in the area which is known as "The Oaks".

The Wheeler House is in good condition and is a good example of the kind of building that was done in Allegany County in the first quarter of the 20 Century.
