DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This house is two stories high, three bays wide by one deep, and faces east. Its shallow-pitched gable roof is covered in standing seam metal, siding is patterned asphalt.

On the east facade, the central entrance is flanked by 2/2 sash windows and sheltered by a half-hip porch with Colonial Revival columns. Three 2/2 windows are evenly spaced across the second story, and a central cross gable holds a small squarish window. Interior chimneys rise behind the roof ridge on both gable ends. A two-story ell extends from the rear.
