7-15 North Liberty Street stands on the east side of the street to the north of Baltimore Street in the central business district of Cumberland, Allegany County.

The building is a low two and a half story brick structure with a gable roof and double internal end chimneys on the south side. The street facade (west side) has been covered over in recent years with new brick and aluminum siding in commercial oriented renovations. A wing, probably later, projects from the back (east side). The first floor contains shops and the second floor may have some original interior trim.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The building at 7-15 North Liberty Street is an early-mid nineteenth century structure probably erected as a combination residence and shop. Although the facade has been greatly altered, the age and the rarity of buildings of this period in the central business district makes this structure worthy of renovation and/or restoration. With only the facade showing, a classical commercial front would be more in sympathy with the age of the building than the present twentieth century aluminum and glass affair.

It is said that this building was occupied by Union officers during the Civil War.
