

EISENBERG CLOTHING STORE

AL-VI-B-108
Jackson Street, Lonaconing
1882

The Eisenberg Clothing Store was constructed in 1882, the year after the great fire of Lonaconing. It is a two story brick building with what was once a typical 19th century commercial store front. Along with two other stores in Lonaconing also located on Jackson Street, Eisenbergs provided the Town of Lonaconing with clothing material and other dry goods.

DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The Eisenberg Clothing Store is located on Jackson Street in Lonaconing, Allegany County.

The Eisenberg Clothing Store is a two story, four bay wide, rectangular building that is constructed of brick laid in American Common Bond. The building rests on a low stone foundation and has a flat roof that has been covered with tin. The ground level has been partially covered with a new wooden facade. A new entrance and an oval window have also been added, and both are topped by a small bracketed cornice. A second entrance with recessed gothic arched panels and a transom light is also located on the main facade. It is flanked by a window with a double hung, wooden sash frame with two over two lights. Both the window and the door have hoodmoulds with keystones. Windows on the second floor are also double hung wooden sash frames with two over two lights and hoodmoulds with keystones. The facade is crowned by a bracketed cornice with a cross gable in which the date "1882" is emblazoned.

A two story addition constructed of brick laid in American Common Bond abuts the main block on its western side. The ground level has also been covered with a wooden facade. The main entrance has been replaced. Windows on the ground level have also been replaced with two oval windows similar to the ones located on the main block. The entire first floor facade is topped by a dentilated and bracketed cornice. On the second story windows are double hung wooden sash frames with two over two lights and semi-circular arches. Located above the windows is a row of recessed paneling topped by a dentilated cornice. The building extends above the cornice in the affect of a roof ballustrade. A single corbeled brick chimney is located in the interior of the main block.

The Eisenberg Clothing Store is in fair condition; however, the commercial shop fronts have been greatly altered.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

On September 7, 1881, the Town of Lonaconing suffered its worst fire in decades. The blaze started in a stable and in three hours fifty three buildings had burnt to the ground. As a result of the fire, the majority of the town was rebuilt during the last decade of the 19th century.¹

The Eisenberg Clothing Store was constructed in 1882, the year after the great fire. Along with Price and Rosenbaums and Ternents, Eisenbergs provided the Town of Lonaconing with clothing, material and other dry goods.
