DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (if known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE
Located near the St. Margarets Church, this house, which is believed to have been the church rectory, has been extensively altered in recent years. It is a two part, 2 story frame building under a continuous A-roof with brick, end chimneys. A one story entrance foyer extending from the front of the house was added by the present owners. The rear of the house has been enlarged by a two-story shed-roofed addition and a raised section with a wide A-roof of slight pitch, its ridge running perpendicular to the main part of the house. A small brick meat house behind the house has been converted to a storage shed, and a two story frame building, once used as a carriage house has now become a separate dwelling unit. It has a large exterior, brick chimney at the end facing the road. The interior of the main house has also be^{en} remodeled.
