| DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (if known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE | |
| This small frame building served in the early 20th century as a station and warehouse for the railroad from Washington to Chesapeake Beach. A post-office and a store were operated at this cross-roads while the railroad was in use. After about 1930, service was discontinued and the community dissolved again, leaving only the abandoned station and a few small houses. The station is a long, narrow, one-story building. It is located parallel to the railroad bed. It has an A-roof and is sheathed in board and batten siding. The building was heated and the stove chimney still stands. Abandoned for many years, the structure is badly deteriorated. | |
