203 Duke of Gloucester Street is a very good variation on a standard Annapolis house type (see 1,97,99 Cathedral), a 3 storey Mansard roof, narrow house with pillared front porch. Two decorative, pointed dormers poke through the fish scale slate on the mansard; there is a fine rich cornice below the mansard. Windows are shuttered with elliptical brick arches and have several small panes surrounding a single pane (these small panes may have held colored glass at one time). 205 is a wood shingled ell. There is a yard between 203 and 211. Building good complement to 195 and 196 Gloucester Street.
