STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE:

Probably dates from c.1742 when Benjamin Tasker purchased lot from Daniel Carroll, confiscated during Revolution; owned by Female Orphan Society of Annapolis 1869-1940; enlarged and altered 1977. Perhaps one of the earliest structures in Annapolis, 100 Market Street's original outline has been somewhat modified by various improvements and additions, however, it still has a rather picturesque medieval quality about it. Historically important, this little cottage-type house should definitely be preserved and intensive research carried out on it. The foot of Market Street was one of the early city landings.
