A double house of good size and scale and showing two various exterior treatments. No. 120 has been covered with modern shingling, but woodwork, chimney, roof, etc. are all original - has cornice brackets, pointed lintels, louvered shutters, etc. and front porch supported by three Tuscan columns. No. 122 is basically same arrangement and still has original roof, siding, cornice. However, a large window, and fake brick facade have been applied on the front. No. 120 is quite handsome, 122 - same scale, etc. important on South Street. Essential to hold E. side of street together.
