STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Our Lady of Sorrows Roman Catholic Church was founded in 1866 on land originally purchased by the Stewart family. Martin J. Spaulding, Archbishop of Baltimore is said to have given $365 for two acres of the present four acre tract. William C. Peake, a West River Methodist also donated some of the property.

This church has always had black and indian members (the indians are called "Wessarts" and are of black & indian extraction). There has never been a black Catholic Church in Anne Arundel County with the exception of St. Augustine's in Annapolis. That church was built in 1950 and demolished in the 1970's. Our Lady of Sorrows has been home to black Catholics in this rural area for 124 years.
