DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (if known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE
Located between Hilltop and Homewood Roads, this 2 story brick house is believed to have been built by a member of the Linthicum family in the first quarter of the 19th century. The building was extensively renovated in 1932, porches being added and the windows replaced. The south, front, facade has two parts. The three bays at its west end, between the two brick chimneys have regularly spaced openings with the main door, in the center bay. A single bay on the east end of the facade appears to be an addition. A 2 story framing has been added to the north side of the house forming an ell at the east end. The name Locust Vale is supposedly derived from the large number of Locust trees surrounding the house. Once the seat of a large farm, only the house remains. The barns, located below the house on the north side, have disappeared. See: Genealogy of Linthicum and Allied Families: Badger, Matilda P.
