DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (if known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE
This three story commercial structure is located in mid-block. It is surfaced in running-bond brick with wood and glass detail. The ground floor has been mostly resurfaced in wood. At either end is a brick panel connecting to the brick upper stories, and within these, a stone panel of equally thin width. Within this frame of brick and stone are a pair of doors with flat transoms at the edges of the center section. At the center is a wood panel containing a tripartite picture window framed in wood and under a simple wooden projecting lintel. A pair of lamps flank the window and a metal awning spans the entire floor. A tin panels serves as a base for the two story oriel window dominating the upper facade. Half-timbered panelling separates the two floors of this window. Each floor consists of 1/1 panels: One set on each flank of the oriel, 2 sets on the front. Surrounding the oriel is running-bond brick continued from the first floor brick panels. The oriel is topped by a large splayed flat-arch lintel with a large decorative keystone. Two large wooden brackets support the dentilled cornice, which is applied within the borders of the brick facade and stepped brick parapet above.
