D	Insignificant/detrimental	good	fair	poor	bad

Notable features:

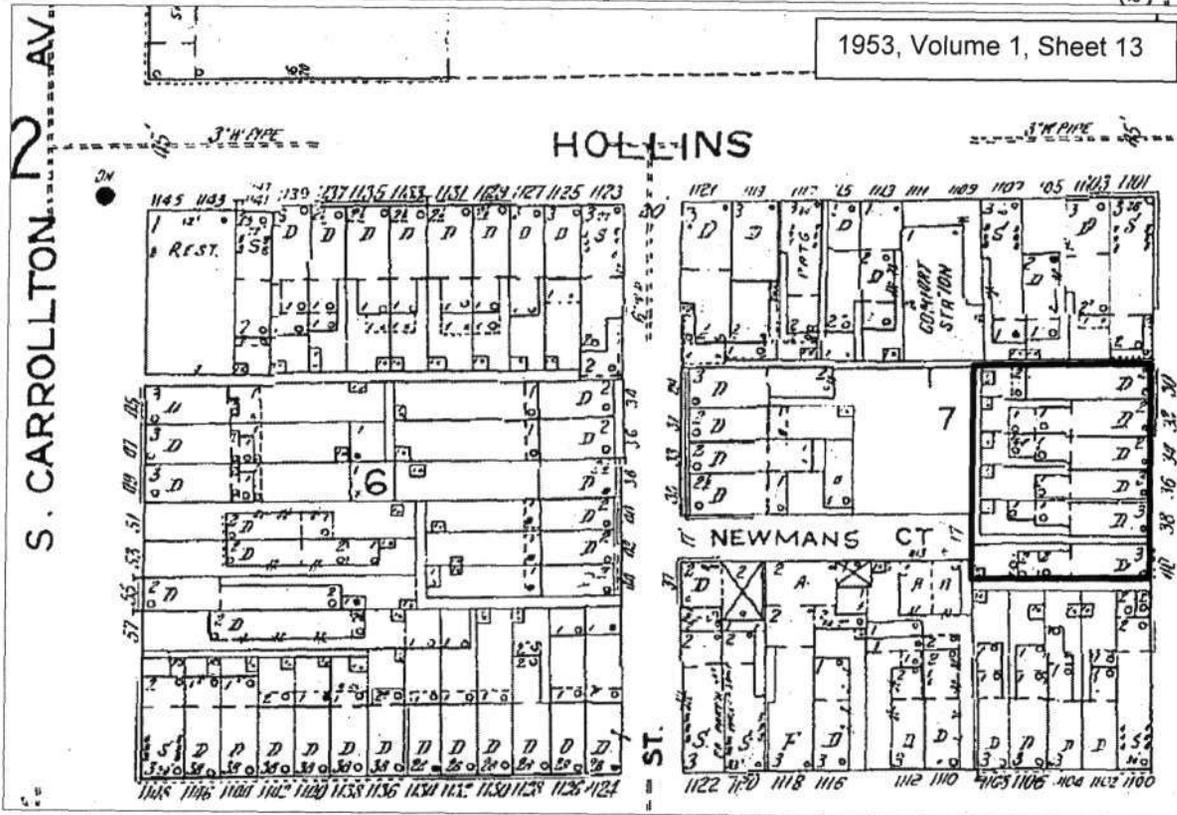

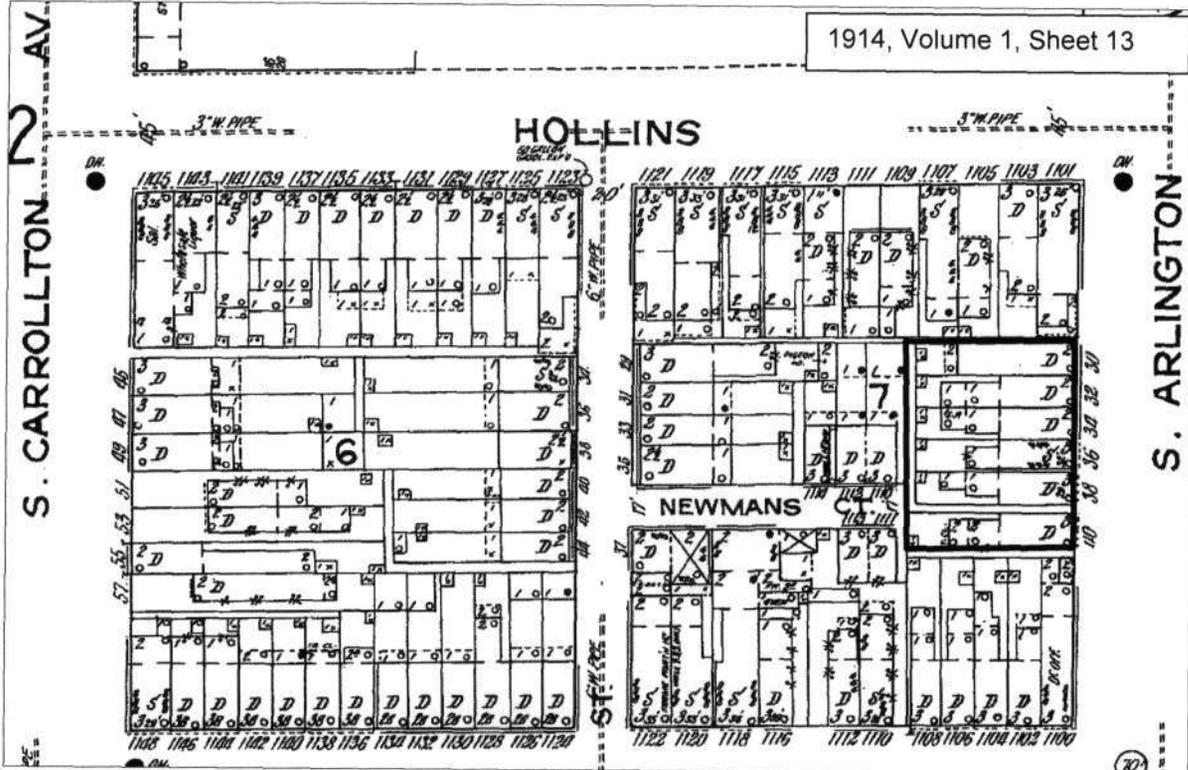

This is a nice row in real need of rehabilitation. The side of number 1101 Hollins has a promenade porch which forms a part of the Arlington Avenue front.

Environmental context:

This is another adjunct street to the Market and as such must be a part of any overall planning for it. The metered parking across-street probably needs to remain. Street trees would help and more shop front uses would be in context.
