

EA- 1109

BISHOP'S INN - c. 1813 - 9114 Belair Road, west side, north of India Avenue. Large stone house, 2-½ stories, stucco covered; inside end-chimneys, dormers; porch and second-floor gallery have been glassed in. Blank end-walls. The land was purchased by William Bishop in 1813 and was known as Bishop's Inn or Tavern and variously served as a stage coach stop, bakery, butcher shop, tourist home, and finally a residence. It was sold at public auction in 1845. Shown on 1859 map as the Joseph Brooks house. It passed in 1876 to Dr. Abraham S. Baldwin. In 1900, when Frank Goettner opened a butcher shop and conducted slaughtering on the former tollgate lot to the south, he called it "Indian Rock." Owner: Howard S. Harple (1985). He sold to Kentucky Fried Chicken, which demolished inn late in 1985.

DISTRICT 11 - continued -