

GA- 1389

PEACHY MARTIN HOUSE - 1775-1800 - Lower Beckleysville Road, 1.3 miles east of Hampstead. Two-story red brick, gable-roofed, small banked house on stone foundation. Three stories in front (north); one-story full-width porch. Two front doors; wing to rear (south). Overall L-shape. One-story back porch. Shed-roofed porch on middle of three stories. Vernacular style. Peachy Martin was recorded as witness to several local wills in 1770s. Also found in 1798 tax list. His descendants established adjoining farms in the angle between Black Rock Road and Lower Beckleysville Roads. Owner: Kenneth W. Rhoten.