See Judicial Record 179/527, May 14, 1901 (See attachment) Edward A. Cockey et al vs. Charles T. Cockey et al Being part of the farm known as "Garrison"

Thomas B. Cockey by way of his Will 3/267 dated Nov. 30, 1861 devised his estate to his nephew, Charles Thomas Cockey and heirs.

Charles Cockey by way of his Will WB 11/571 dated April 5, 1823 devised his estate called "Garrison" to his son Thomas B. Cockey.

JUDICIAL RECORD: 179/527, April 30, 1901
Edward A. Cockey et al vs. Charles T. Cockey et al

A public road opened being an extension of Park Heights Ave. running through the Westernmost portion of "Garrison" farm running into Green Spring Valley Rd.
(According to testimony in this case the public road opened "about three years ago")

That portion of land on the West side of the road was small, triangular and adjoined the farm of Mrs. Emily W. Graves. The land was undesirable for building or agriculture. Therefore it was agreed to sell this land to Mrs. Graves in exchange for a portion of her land located on the East side of the road.
