FRANCIS HOUSE - 1866-1868 - 1601 North Rolling Road, Relay. Large, frame, cross-gabled house in Gothic Revival style with steeply pitched roof, grey wall covering. Not much decoration. Well back from the street and accessible from North Rolling Road. Probably built between 1866 and 1868 by Jacob Umstead, who bought a 17-plus acre parcel from Samuel Sutton in 1866. Sutton sued the Umsteads for non-payment in 1868 and a 17-½ acre estate and "handsome cottage residence" was reported sold to Edward B. Lusby (Maryland Journal, June 13, 1868). Lusby sold to John C. Goldsborough for $8,000 in 1868. The "country residence of Mr. Goldsborough" was mentioned in the Maryland Journal, July 29, 1871. The "Friendship" estate of J. C. Goldsborough was shown as a 25-acre tract in the 1877 Hopkins atlas. Goldsborough sold in 1881 to Isaac H. Francis. The 1915 Bromley atlas showed the tract as property of the Francis Estate Land Company, reflecting its ownership by Isaac H. Francis, Sr. and after 1905, his heirs. Owner (1984): Thelma V. Francis.
