

Memo to file

February 24, 2015

From: Casey Pecoraro
Inventory Registrar

Re: BA-545
Stokes House

The property documented in the following MIHP form has been demolished, per Teri Rising, Baltimore County Department of Planning Preservation Services Division (see 1/26/15 e-mail and report on file in Registrar's office).

- BA-544 HAUSSNER FARM HOUSE - South side of Glencoe Road, 0.7 mile west of Carroll Road, end of private lane. Small, 1-½ story frame house with steep gable roof and dormers; full-width front porch. Covered with composition shingles. Built into hillside. Was once a dormitory of Oread College.
Owner: _____.
- BA-545 STOKES HOUSE - Before 1898 - NE side of Glencoe Road, 0.8 mile west of junction with Carroll Road, near Glencoe village. Shown as Mrs. C. A. Gilbert's in 1898 atlas and again in 1915 issue. Large, frame and shingle Queen Anne style house that burned in 1972.
- BA-546 GLENCOE RAILROAD STATION - 1856 - (West side of) 15512 Home Road, just north of Glencoe Road between former railroad line and Great Gunpowder Falls. Building faces east toward NCRR main line, moved slightly from its original position. The former depot of the resort town of Glencoe, found on 1881 drawing in Scharf's county history, p. 916. Two-story Victorian style building, originally in vertical board; with verge boards on eaves. Inundated in two floods of 1970s. Excellent condition