

BA-645
A.L. McGuire Florist Shop (site)
east side of Reisterstown Road,
second bldg. south of Hooks Lane
Pikesville

possibly c. 1800

This two-story stone house with a gable roof was possibly built c. 1800. It was last used as a florist shop by Albert L. McGuire. Ms. Sarah Pearre thought the house might have been 200 years old. Vernacular in style, the house was reported in January 1974 as already extinct. It has been replaced by an Exxon station.
