

B4- 860

HYDES STATION - c. 1882 - (South side of) 5235 Hydes Road, 0.75 mile west of Long Green Pike. Frame station that served the Maryland and Pennsylvania railroad until the termination of passenger service in 1958. Two-story clapboarded structure, with green tin gable roof; Victorian style. Small post office tacked on east end. Fair condition. Used (1978) as a garden shop.