DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (If known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The Guild House is a two storey wood house, 'L' shaped, three bays fronting southeast (hereinafter called south) with a two bay rear wing at the east end. A two storey, two bay frame west wing has been added in recent years. The exterior walls are covered with asbestos shingles.

The principal entrance is centered in the south front of the original section. Windows are 6/6 with modern louvred blinds. A single-flue chimney rises from each of the three original gable ends.

The front section was originally two rooms, the westerly one being one bay in width; the dividing partition is now removed in the first storey. Most interior finishes are of recent vintage. A small fireplace is in the easterly chimney, north of which rises the stairway. The rear wing is the kitchen, its chimney is a single flue.

The stone walled cellar extends under the westerly half of the front section only. Joists are log, and the hewn log atop the east wall of the cellar appears as though it might have been a sill, suggesting an original easterly limit of a wood structure above. This foundation wall is not expressed within the existing structure above.

Interior dimensions of the cellar are approximately 11 by 13 feet; if a structure once existed above the cellar only, its approximate dimensions were 15 by 17 feet.

Exterior dimensions of the existing house are approximately 17 by 28 feet, with a rear wing of approximately 12½ by 14 feet.

James T. Wollon, Jr.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE
The Guild House is of mid or early 19th century origin, possibly beginning as a small tenant house or slaves quarters. The house is on a part of what was lot 30 of the Manor. It was purchased in 1782 auction sale by Henry Gaither. (-1) No patent for this lot was ever issued. In 1796 Henry Gaither sold the lot, 125 acres to John McGaw (-2). The transaction in which this portion of the property was sold by McGaw has not been found and even when located may not be of assistance. The 1823 Baltimore County Tax Assessment for District 5 does not list any small outbuildings. A house existed on this site in 1850 and appears on the 1850 map under the name of J. Cox. Much further study of this house is indicated. References: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Salebook of Confiscated British Property 1781-85, pp. 55-56 2.
