UNION SCHOOL NO. 2 - Before 1850 - East side of West Liberty Road, opposite terminus of Gibson Road, Gorsuch Mills vicinity. Old Brick village school set on a hill; found on both 1850 map and 1877 atlas. School commissioners acquired title in 1859 from Samuel and Belinda Meredith, but that deed makes no mention of an earlier school. Sold off to Cornelius Shaeffer in 1933. Passed to R. Clifton Anderson in 1942, and in 1975 to Arthur F. Wood, who assembled lot into proposed

"Indian Meadows" subdivision. Converted into a dwelling. Gable roof, full-width front porch with shed roof; cinder-block chimney. Poor condition, 1978. Owner: Artwood Builders, Inc.
