

CT-215

PLUM POINT SCHOOL

Willows (Plum Point) late 19th century
Bayside Road (Maryland Route 261)

This one-room frame building was originally a school for black children. Before the 1930's it was moved to its present location, where it has been used as a tenant house. In spring, 1978, this vacant building was seriously damaged by fire.