Mid 19th Century

Three sections, each heated by an exterior brick chimney, form this charming house. The central section, facing south, measures two bays square by two stories tall. The entrance, sheltered by a pedimented porch, occupies the west bay. The eastern chimney heats both floors. Two one-bay-square, one-story additions run to the west and north. A modern, small one-story addition extends to the east of the north addition.

This farm includes two early 20th century barns.
