Prepare both a summary paragraph and a general description of the resource and its various elements as it exists today.

This two-story single-pile framed and weatherboarded house faces west onto Solomons Island Road. It has a three-bay side-passage-parlor form. There is an exterior brick chimney on the north gable end. The front doorway is sheltered by an arched and gabled stoop. One of the first-story bays of the facade has been transformed into a large bay window. The original sash have a two-over-two pattern. The original weatherboards have been replaced with asbestos shingles.
