Prepare both a summary paragraph and a general description of the resource and its various elements as it exists today.

This three-bay framed and weatherboarded I-house faces west onto Solomons Island Road. The house has a centered front-facing gable set into its gable roof. All original chimneys and stove flues have been removed. There is a two-story early or original rear ell and a modern one-story rear ell. The six-over-six double-hung sash of the windows are recent replacements of original sash. There is a one-story hipped-roof glazed front porch sheltering the facade. The present siding is also new.
