 DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

American Corners School is located on the west side of Maryland Route 631, approximately one-half of a mile north of Maryland Route 621, in American corners. The school is overgrown with bushes and is in a badly deteriorated condition.

The school was a one story structure, frame on a brick foundation, single room rectangular plan and had a gable end main facade. On the west gable end was a shed addition with a single pitch roof. The main facade (east elevation) has a single door with transom. Windows were on the north and south facades. The shingle roof had ornamental shaped rafter ends.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The American Corner School is significant for the role it played in early public education in Caroline County. In these small structures throughout the County are the roots of education in the late 19th century. Present systems of consolidation is a development of early community schools which in turn replaced scattered private 'schools'.

American Corners School is the oldest recorded public school in the History of Caroline County, being constructed in 1889.
