 DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

Friendship School is located on the north side of the intersection of American Corner Road and Friendship Road, northeast of Preston, Caroline County. The structure was moved to its present site where it is being used by a local business.

The design of Friendship School is similar to several other school houses in Caroline County that were probably built in the early twentieth century. The floor plan of the building is rectangular, but the ridge of the roof is T-shaped. Therefore, the two long facades (in this case the east and west) have a three bay gable end section with two doors, a central window and another window above it in the gable, and a two bay section with two windows. The south facade is the unfenestrated gable end, and the north facade is three bays long. Most of the fenestration has been altered or blocked in for the buildings present use as a warehouse.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Friendship School, located directly across from Friendship Church, once formed part of the social, educational, and religious center of a farming community. Located at the intersection of three roads, they are the only building in the immediate vicinity. Together with the farms that they served, these buildings are one example of the development of social and cultural history in the area.
