Prepare both a summary paragraph and a general description of the resource and its various elements as it exists today.

This Colonial Revival style house, built circa 1915, has a gable roof with the ridge parallel to the street, atop which are three pedimented roof dormers. The single-bay porch has a semi-circular roof with cornice. The entranceway details include fluted pilasters, side lights and a carved garland decoration above the six-panelled door. On the west elevation is a side porch with columns supporting a dentilled entablature.
