Based on available information the structure at 25595 Auction Road, Federalsburg, Maryland is not located within the boundaries of a state listed historic district and does not meet the criteria for individual listing on the Maryland Register. The symmetrical, two story, three bay frame dwelling with hip roof and first floor porch is representative of early 20th century domestic dwellings in rural Maryland and is a common, vernacular example of the American Foursquare house type. The structure does not have sufficient distinction to qualify for individual listing.
