According to information provided by SHA, the late-nineteenth century farmstead on Noble Road in Caroline County is does not meet the criteria for individual listing on the National Register of Historic Place. The farmstead retains a late nineteenth century frame farmhouse & ruins of a frame barn. The farmhouse is similar to many in the county and is in poor condition and thus does not meet criterion C for architecture. In Caroline County, which still remains primarily agricultural, the farm does not appear to be significant under under criterion A for agriculture. In addition, it is not located in any known historic district.

Documentation on the property/district is presented in: Project File
