DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

Nothing remains above grade of the Greensboro Methodist Church or Old Brick Church as it is sometimes called. From the old photo in possession of Mr. Jack Boulais, the building appears to have been a very substantial brick structure built with overtones of the Romanesque style. Its arched corbel tables and side tower are similar to St. Paul's , Baltimore and St. Peter's, Salisbury. Some of the treatment of the facade is similar to the Dorchester County Courthouse.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This site of the Greensboro Methodist Church is important because it was the site of a nineteenth century Methodist house of worship and as such was a leading building in the lives of the people of the Greensboro area. It is also significant as the site of the most advanced architectural structure in Greensboro. The style of the building was not emulated elsewhere in the town or in the County. It was a great loss that this building was demolished.
