The house at 1666 Liberty Road (MD 26) is located on the north side of the highway next to a contemporary, brick apartment building. A gravel driveway provides access to the property as well as to a gravel parking lot associated with the apartment building. The vernacular farmhouse was constructed ca. 1906. Two, two-story additions have been appended to the rear (north) elevation. The building, originally a single family dwelling, has been subdivided into eight apartments.

The two-story house faces south onto Liberty Road. The house forms a nearly square footprint resting on a stone basement. It is three bays wide by two bays deep. The wood-frame walls are clad with aluminum siding. The roof terminates in a side gable roof featuring a central front gable. All roof planes are sheathed in metal shingles. The house features wide, overhanging eaves and gable returns. The house has a central, interior, brick chimney and features one-over-one-light, double-hung, wood sash windows with wood surrounds. The house has a two-story, gable ell appended to the western half of the north wall, and a two-story, shed roofed ell appended to the east half of the north wall. An exterior staircase provides access to the second floor of the eastern addition.

The principle (south) elevation contains the primary entrance. The primary entrance is centrally located under a full façade, hip roofed porch with a central, front gable. The porch roof is supported by square posts resting on brick piers. The porch features wood railings and square balusters. The porch features tongue-and-groove wood flooring. The central dormer features a replacement metal-sash window.

NR-ELIBILITY REVIEW FORMContinuation Sheet No. 1

The house at 1666 Liberty Road was built as a residence ca. 1906. Isodene Shipley bought the two-acre property from Thomas and Hannah Hatfield of Howard County in 1906 (Carroll County Land Record DPS 104:60). Mrs. Shipley sold the house to Adolf and Dora Weisner in 1920 (CCLR EOC 136:173). In 1939 the property was conveyed to Annie McCoy and Anna Margaretta McCoy (CCLR LDM 171:373). 1666 Limited purchased the property in 1983 (CCLR 845:122). At that time, the house was subdivided into eight apartments.

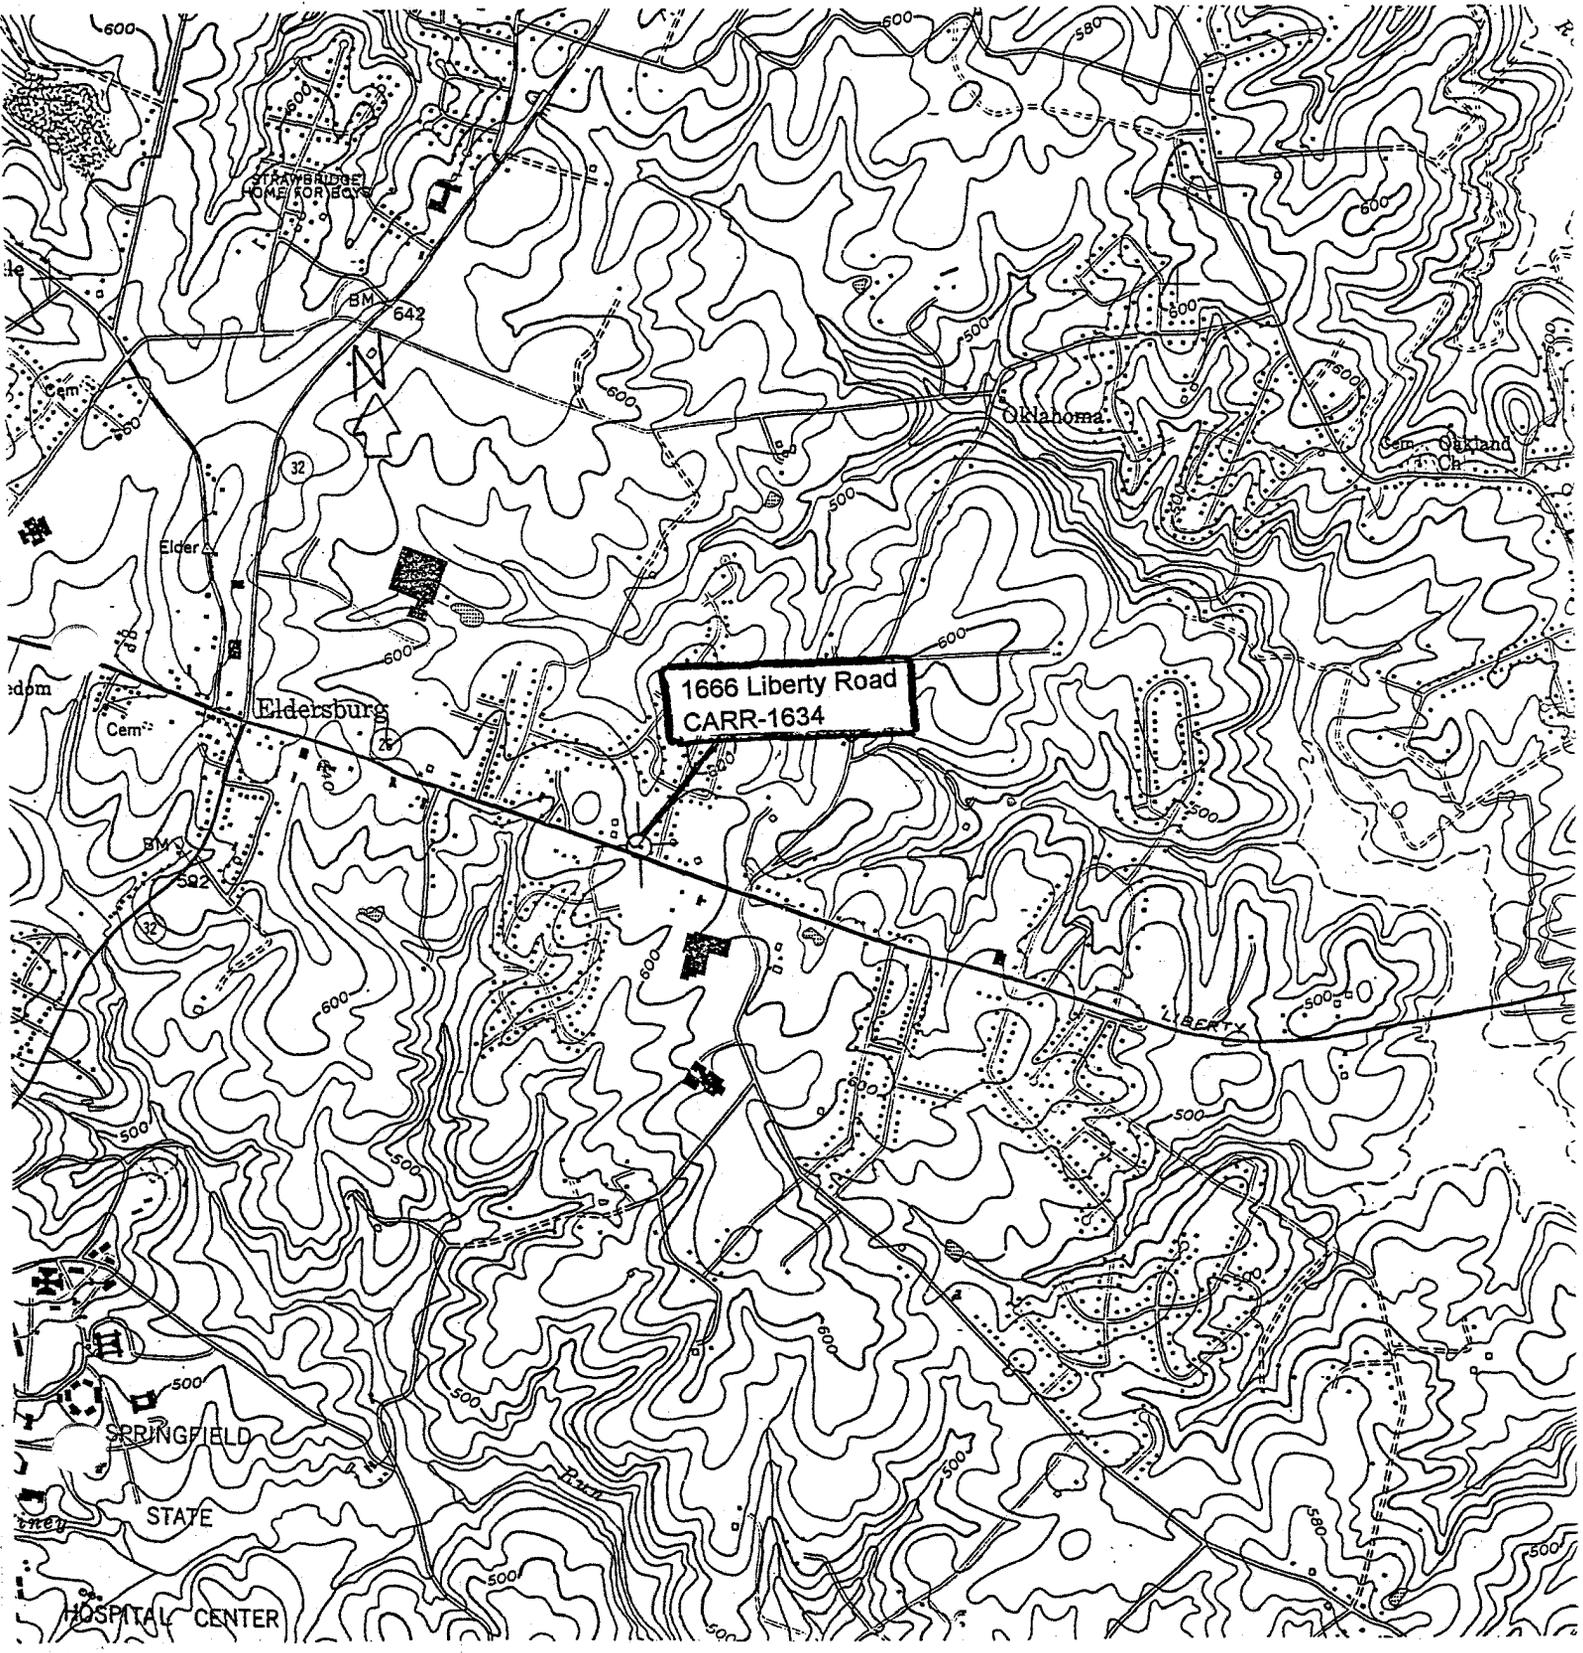

The house at 1666 Liberty Road retains integrity of location. In terms of design, the building does not retain sufficient integrity from the ca. 1906 period to illustrate building practice in the county. The exterior of the building has been clad in replacement aluminum siding and several recent additions obscure the original configuration and design. The house was modified substantially during the twentieth century as additions were appended to the original core and the interior was converted into apartments. Such character defining features such as the exterior cladding and the original plan were altered. The house no longer possesses integrity of design, materials, or workmanship characteristic of its original period of construction. The construction of the adjacent apartment building on its east side has impacted the house's integrity of setting, feeling, and association.

The house at 1666 Liberty road is an example of a modest frame dwelling that is not associated with the agrarian history of Eldersburg. Research does not indicate that the dwelling was associated with events or personages of historical importance on the local, state, or national level. The dwelling does not contribute to the architectural or historical heritage of the community, county, state, or nation and does not fulfill the criteria for listing in the National Register of Historic Places.
