CARR- 348 Uniontown Hotel 3477 Uniontown Road

The Uniontown Hotel is one of the earliest buildings in the town. It has a datestone of 1802 and was built by Conrad Stem. The building was operated as a tavern by a number of proprietors until 1883 when it became a private residence. During the early twentieth century, the eastern wing of the building and an addition that has since been torn down were a gas station and automobile garage. Owners of the property during its tenure as a tavern were John Myers (1807), George Herbaugh (1811), William Roberts (1824), Alfred Zollickoffer (1862), and Luther Hiteshew (1879). During the early history of Uniontown, town meetings were held at this tavern. About 1842, William Roberts added a rear wing in which he operated a store. Several writers state that the height of the tavern's operation was 1842-1862 when William Segafoose was proprietor. For example, the "History of Uniontown" states, "He was the most popular hotelkeeper who ever resided in the village, and maintained in every way the best hotel." Segafoose also served as Sheriff of Carroll County during the late nineteenth century. The hotel property included a large wagon yard, stable, and extensive garden. The size and architectural details of the building made it a prominent structure for its time. Period characteristics are the Flemish-bond brickwork, the six-over-nine pane sash windows, and the gabled dormer windows on the roof.

DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (If known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The last remaining known hotel in Uniontown (now a dwelling) the Seagoose Hotel is a large Z-shaped structure of brick construction and two and one half storeys in height.

The N. elevation, facade, is four bays in length with the doors ⁴ pane transoms the second bay from the NE corner. The 2nd floor retains its four windows however the 6/8 pane sash is a 20th century "restoration" replacement. The three peaked dormers are 2/2 sash. The roof which runs E-W has two large interior chimneys one at each end. The brick work of the facade is laid in a Flemish bond. The rear wing appears original. The fenestration of the W. elevation is regular with all windows retaining 6/6 pane sash. The wings E. elevation is shadowed by a two storey frame porch of a very plain design. At the E. end of the main block is a brick extension that could once have served as a carriage house and there appears to have been a frame extension from its E end.

~~On~~ the set within the W. gable of the main block up near the chimney is a 1/2 round stone reading: 1802 C.S.

In poor structural condition the building is undergoing extensive "restoration" (renovation) by its present owners.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE (Include Personages, Dates, Events, Etc.)

The association of the Seгаfoose Hotel to the early history of Union-town would more than warrant the insurance of preservation - especially since U.T. has been established ~~by~~ as an historical district by Carroll County.
