CARR. 349 William Segafoose House
3481 Uniontown Road

3481 Uniontown Road was built by Mrs. Luther Hiteshew in 1879. It and 3485 Uniontown Road are on the site of the garden for the Uniontown Hotel (3477 Uniontown Road). The house was bought by William Guy Segafoose shortly after it was built and has remained in the possession of the Segafoose family since that time. The recently published agricultural history of Carroll County, Legacy of the Land, includes recollections written by William N. Segafoose of the huckstering business from Uniontown to Baltimore operated by the Segafoose family (pg. 61). The five-bay by three-bay house is a quite substantial structure and relies on its massing and proportion for its visual effect. The major ornamentation is found in the wide, overhanging eaves with molded cornice. The elaborate full-length porch was added during the first decade of the twentieth century. Also significant is the fact that while the L-shaped plan is not used in this house, it still retains a double-tiered porch that fits into the roof line at the rear of the house and makes good use of its southern exposure. In comparison with 3488 and 3468 Uniontown Road, it is surprising that over this seventy-year period, the basic composition of domestic architecture remains the same, i.e. stone foundation, brick walls and symmetrical facade. 3481 Uniontown Road has one of the more elaborate porches in Uniontown, with its brackets, pendants and sawtooth ornamentation on the porch cornice and the cut-out design below the porch railing.
