MEADOW BRANCH CHURCH OF THE BRETHREN

1914

808 Taneytown Pike
Westminster vicinity

private

The Meadow Branch Church of the Brethren was created in 1825 and met in the homes of its members Christian Royer and David Roop. In 1847, the congregation built a stone church on the site of the present church. The land was donated for the church by Peter Royer and John Roop. In 1876, a store addition was added to this church. The stone church was torn down in 1914, with some of the stone being used for the foundation of a one story brick church. The eastern portion of the present structure is the 1914 church. A photograph in the collection of the Historical Society of Carroll County shows the original fenestration of this ten bay facade, which included two double door entrances and one single door entrance. This structure was built in a plain style representative of Brethren churches in this region. The church currently has a brick addition with a store entrance way that was built in the late 1960s.

4 Meadow Branch Church of the Brethren (CARR 392)--our offices agreed that this church was Maryland Inventory Level as part of the Section 106 coordination for the MD 140 project which occurred in 1988.

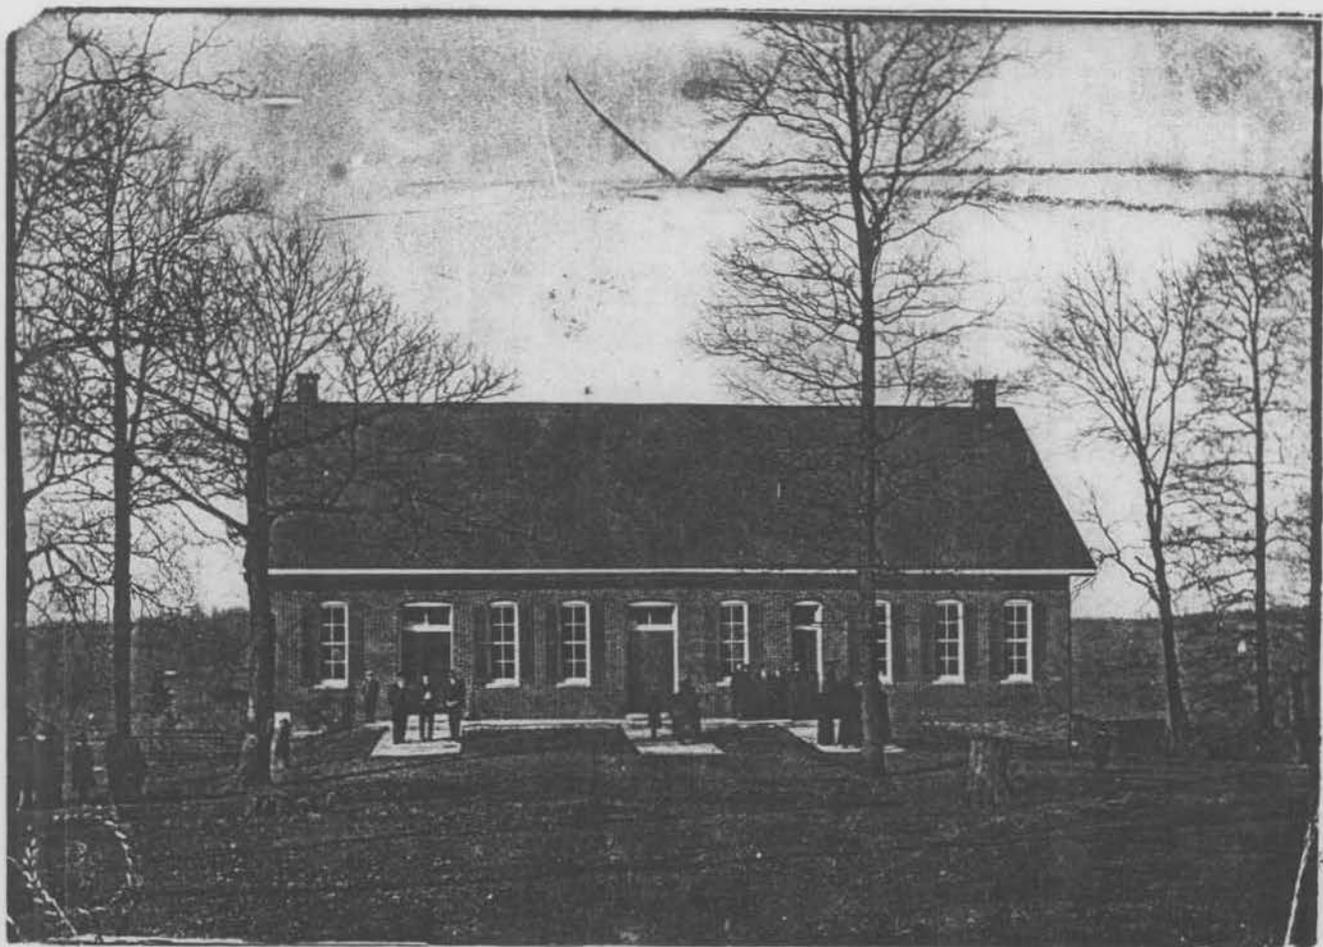

The existing structure, shown in the attached photographs, dates from the period 1914 to the 1960's. The 1914 one story brick church replaced an earlier stone structure, built in 1847 on land donated by Peter Royer and John Roop. This section constitutes the eastern portion of the existing structure. Evidently the fenestration was altered, as the original structure had two double door entrances and one single door entrance. The large addition on the west was built onto the west wall of the 1914 section in the late 1960's. With its oversized stone bell tower and large, double door entry, it does not appear to harmonize with the earlier structure. This disunity is exacerbated by the large paved parking area, and the heavy development of the surrounding acreage with modern subdivision housing, highly visible from the southwest to the northwest.

In its current condition, the Meadow Branch Church of the Brethren does not have integrity of design, setting, materials, workmanship, association and feeling, and thus does not appear to meet the most basic criteria for inclusion in the National Register of Historic
