material
 Original green field stone three-story (plus basement) structure. The building is sound except north wall which needs reinforcement. Jail facilities are still intact on basement and first floor levels, however, outward appearance would not indicate the building was once a jail except bars over the rear windows on the second floor. The roof is slate with three front dormer windows. The large chimney on the south side also serves to reinforce the massive 24" stone wall.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE (Include Personages, Dates, Events, Etc.)

The jail of Carroll County built in 1837 constructed of lovely green field stone. The jail was authorized by the Commissioner of Tax of Carroll County (now called County Commissioners). This building is located on "Weeding Choice" part of an early land patent given to the County by the heirs of David Fisher. The contractors for the jail were Bennjamin F. Forrester and Johnzie Selby. They built it for the sum of $4,000.

The jail interior and roof, ~~was~~ destroyed by fire May 18, 1882. Original stone walls were standing. The Carroll County Mutual Insurance Company elected to restore the building instead of paying amount of insurance.

The jail of Carroll County was closed in 1968 by the Department of Corrections.
