231 TANNERY ROAD

Leister Residence

mid-19th century

Westminster vicinity

231 Tannery Road is a representative style log farmhouse of the mid-nineteenth century. It is constructed into a slope so that the main facade has a full basement level. An enclosed two-story porch with a shed roof has been added to this facade. The house has two-over-two window sash and interior and chimneys at each gable end. The north facade has a full-length one-story porch.
