CE-1047
Near Chesapeake City
Private

C. 1855

The Bennett-Rhoades House stands in the midst of Augustine Herman's vast Bohemia Manor. The 100 acre tract on which this house stands was conveyed to the Oldham Family in the early 19th century (JS 6/74 - 1/12/1810). The 100 acre parcel remained without a structure until George W. Bennett and William Watts bought the hundred acres for $1500.00 in 1854. (HHM 3/221) Bennett and ^{Watts}presumably built the farmhouse with the intention of renting. ^{THE RHOADES NAME}William Rhoades appears on both the 1858 and 1877 atlases but ^{WILLIAM RHOADES}did not purchase the property until 1863, (WHR 4/524) which indicates Rhoades rented the farmhouse and 100 acres from the time of house construction to 1863 when he purchased the farm for $5000.00.

DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

BENNETT 1855
 The ~~Waller~~ Rhoades House c. ~~1840~~ is a two story four bay by one room hall/parlor frame house on the northwest corner of Maryland 213 and Courthouse Point Road. The house faces east with the main gable running north/south.

The house rests on a partial fieldstone foundation with a basement under the two bay by one room kitchen ell. The earlier weatherboard is covered with a composition shingle. The roof retains a standing seam tin sheathing.

The east (main) elevation is four bays across with two central doors and flanking 6/6 sash windows with plain surrounds. Louvered whutters remain on the four second floor windows.

The front doors are glazed above the lock rail and paneled below. A molded box cornice stretches across the base of the roof interior end brick stacks rise out of each end and are flanked by four pane attic lights. A plain bargeboard closes the gable end. One 6/6 sash is found on the first floor of the south end with two panel shutters. A three bay hipped roof porch with turned posts and decorative corner brackets also has a railing between posts.

The west side of the house is predominantly covered with the ell kitchen wing. Two second floor windows are exposed on the north end of the house. An identical box cornice is also found on this side.

The kitchen wing has similar detailing only it is slightly shorter in elevation. A single story shed addition is attached to the north side while a shed porch covers the south side. A kitchen entrance has an adjacent 6/6 sash window and two 2" floor sash above. The side porch extends farther west than the rear kitchen wall. Another shed porch runs across the back of the house.

The interior detailing has remained basically unaltered with long two panel doors with heavy ogee molded insets, which are framed by molded door surrounds. An enclosed winder stair is found in the southwest corner. Mid 19th century mantels have simple pilasters, a plain frieze and a thick board shelf.

Not many mid 19th century farm structures remain. The present owners were responsible for constructing a number of concrete block structures.

BUILDER/ARCHITECT

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

William H. Rhoades arrived in Cecil County around 1838 from Delaware according to the Lake, Griffing, and Stevenson patron list. ~~The stylistic features date from approximately that period so Mr. Rhodes may have been responsible for the its construction of this house.~~

The hall/parlor form with two front doors is a relatively common form in Cecil County, especially in the northern part. Its cultural background is not exactly known but expected to the English Antecedents.

WILLIAM RHOADES APPEARS ON 1858 MAP BUT DID NOT PURCHASE PROPERTY UNTIL 1863 (WHR 4/524) FOR $5000.00. GEORGE W. BENNETT OWNED THE FARM BEFORE RHOADES AND WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR BUILDING THE HOUSE FOR A TENANT FARM. BENNETT AND WM WATTS PURCHASED THE 100 ACRES FROM THE OLHAM ESTATE IN 1854 FOR $1500.00.
