Boulden Chapel & Cemetery
Near Elkton
Private

✓ 1871 (Dated),
1938 (Dated)

Small country churches and chapels dot the Cecil County landscape and Boulden Chapel on Nottingham Road is represented by two structures. The earlier building is a square weatherboard frame box with gable roof. Entrance and exit is gained through the gable end door and light enters two 6/6 sash on either side. The same building proportions were repeated in the 1938 common bond brick replacement. Admittedly, the church tripled in size and its brick construction, arched door and window openings, and inset glass block cross separate the two buildings, however, the same basic square proportions with gable roof are found in both structures.
