 DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

Across from the Parish House is a two bay wide, two story frame dwelling with two bay, low two story wing and a one bay, one story wing. Across the south facade of the former wing and a few feet of the latter wings is an enclosed leanto, which appears to be a continuation of the leanto porch extending around the east and south side of the main portion.

The porch, with its turned posts and pierced brackets, and the raised seam tin roof of both porch and principle portion of the house are the only early features of the building. The remainder has been remodeled with one pane windows, white aluminum siding and black aluminum shutters. The facade of the building has a picture window on the first story and the entrance is now located in the leanto.

In the south yard is a very large arbor vitae tree. A small shed is being constructed on the back of the property.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Any exterior architectural merit this building possessed has been lost since it was covered with aluminum and remodeled. Its form is representative of the small workingman's dwelling, however, and is similar to several such buildings on George Street between Second and Third Streets.

This land was originally leased from Richard H. Bayard by John Schrader, a baker, in 1854. Mr. Schrader must have met with hard times for he was unable to pay his mortgage to Eliza. B. Reese or his ground rent. When the house was transferred in 1895, the new owner had to pay arrears of ground rent of $70.15. Mr. Schrader operated a bakery at this location and had a bake shop in the house in the 1850's and 1860's.
